6/07 Focal Group Reports and
6/08 Fact-finding questionnaire – conclusion of analysis
The “tick box” analysis had been issued and Richard Leigh was thanked for his hard work, as was Alan Brett for two excellent presentations, one to the Parish Council and one at the Public Meeting.
AB had issued the slides showing the tick box responses to Steering Group members. RL produced a paper relating the tick box analysis to the questions. This paper was approved for circulation to Steering Group and Focal Group members and to the Secretary of the Parish Council. It will appear on the website with a rider as to the refining of some of the items into e.g. localised importance. RL will issue the paper after some small revisions.	RL
In the matter of “free text” answers, Focal Groups are to analyse and merge the basic written responses from the “Beat Sheets” (e.g. comments on pavements, road crossings, etc). A note has already been issued by AB showing which Focal Groups are doing which questions.	Focal Group Leaders
RL will analyse likes, dislikes and extra comments.	RL
Broadly, the subject analysis arising from the responses to the questionnaire was as follows.
Economic Matters: Shop; control of development; inconsistencies in planning approach between Peak Park and Macclesfield Borough Council; affordable housing.	IB
Iain Townley, who is on the Economic Matters Focal Group, wished it to be noted that he has a planning application in for changes to his yard and barn.
Countryside: Countryside pursuits; footpaths; the future of the local countryside; looking after the land, the use of land; conservation issues.	CP
It was agreed that this group needed to be fully aware of the Kerridge Ridge Ingersley Vale (KRIV) project. KB can advise on the nature and project of this major scheme.	CP / KB
